$5 GUEST FEE ELIMINATED

At the beginning of this season, Shadow Mountain Club established a policy of a $5 Guest Fee good for three consecutive dates. Shadow Mountain is a private club, and in the past there were serious abuses of the Guest Cards which were so easily available throughout the season.

It is now deemed a good policy to amend the guest privileges. Many members have asked for this move because members were unable to take their guests to the club in order to eliminate the $5 Guest Fee.

Members may now give, or send, guest cards to their friends which will entitle the guest and his family to use the Club facilities without the $5 fee payment. The policy of the guest card being good for three consecutive days in a 12 month period, is still in effect.

Guest cards stating this new policy can be secured at the Shadow Mountain Club, or by writing the club for the guest cards you need for your friends.

SWIMMING LESSONS

For those of you who have been thinking about taking swimming lessons - maybe for self improvement, or maybe because you have never learned to swim - now is the time to sign up. Life Guard Nick Schaefer is a very qualified teacher and has as a record a South Germany Championship, plus being a former swimming instructor in Canada. Talk to Nick anytime and he will be glad to arrange a starting appointment for you. Private or class lessons - all ages.

KID STUFF

Kookie Kittens (4 to 6 year olds) had their first outing in the wide open spaces and a trek thru Andreas Canyon. Events mostly enjoyed for the big day on February 9th were: picnic lunch, hiking, exploring, catching toads, crossing the stream over a log bridge, plus drinking water from the stream.

The end of a perfect day for the little Club members was at Keedy's! Purpose - an ice cream cone of course!

NEW MEMBER-SPONSOR COCKTAIL PARTY

Many fine comments and words of appreciation have been heard about the New Member and Sponsor Cocktail Party held on Feb. 8th.

This was the first of such parties for the year and hereafter it will be scheduled as a regular monthly event.

Ours is a friendly Club, and as the new members have said, the cocktail party made them feel really welcome and a definite part of the Club.

New members present were: Messrs, and Mesdames Robert B. Allen, J. Sigurt Anderson, Ralph M. Ballou, Ben Barclay, C. Wesley Belt, Melvin L. Blauw, W. Jack Culverhouse, Wm. Duckham, Ansgar E. Johnson, Sr., Bertran I. Nesbitt, Mark T. Smith, Jr., Frederick Thon, Eugene A. Tompkins, Daniel Wachter, Mrs. Jessie G. Cormack, and Col. and Mrs. David E. Fitch. Hosts and hostesses for the evening were: Cliff and Marian Henderson, Beverly and Paul Diggle, and Dorothy and Frank Sorenson.

Marian and Cliff Henderson, above, are shown with their guests at the Roaring 20's Party. Cliff said his coat was one he found in an old trunk.

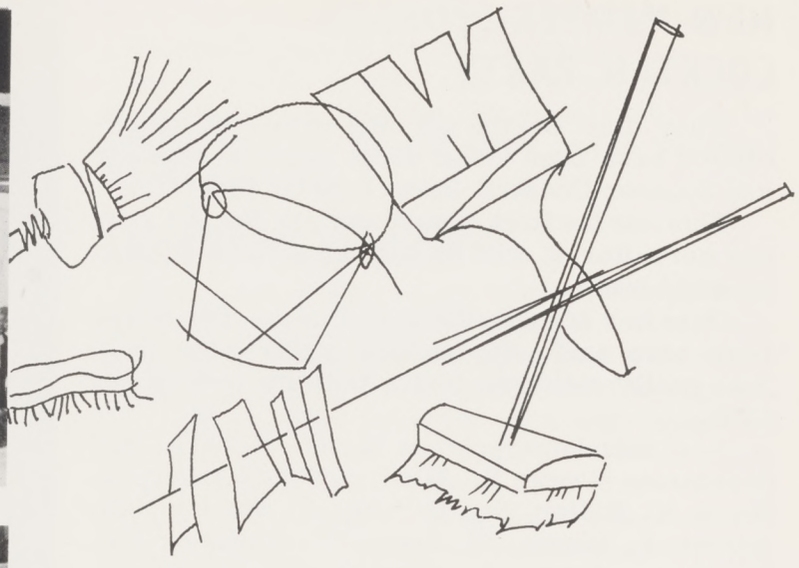
Everybody had fun at the club's Roaring 20's Party when Mickey Finn and her popular orchestra, shown on opposite page, gave out with the old ragtime tunes. Hap Ballard walked off with the prize as the man with the best individual costume representing the gay days of the 1920s.

Desert Beautiful celebrated the organization's first anniversary with a luncheon at Shadow Mountain Club. 120 community leaders attended. Highlight of the meeting was the awarding of prizes to winners of the Anti-Litter Essay and Poster contests for students of the Coachella Valley High Schools. Pictured above are the judges and student winners of the Desert Beautiful contests.



DESERT BEAUTIFUL

Approximately 120 community leaders, members, and well wishers attended the gala celebration of Desert Beautiful's first anniversary that was held in the Gourmet Dining Room at the Club.

Winners of the Beautification and Anti-Litter Essay Contest, and the Anti-Litter Poster Contest, participated in by students in the high schools in the Coachella Valley, were introduced and presented with awards. First place winners received $25. bonds, second place $15. bonds, third place $10. bonds, and Honorable Mention winners $5. Prizes were donated by merchants throughout the valley.

Mrs. Clifford Henderson, founder of Desert Beautiful announced the following judges for the contest in the schools. Jacqueline Cochran, famous aviatrix, Judge Hilton McCabe, Paula Munson curator of the Desert Magazine Art Gallery, and Dr. C. E. Smith, curator and director of the Palm Springs Desert Museum.

Many clever surprises were planned by Mrs. Henderson, among which was the simultaneous lighting of sparklers on the individual cakes, plus a presentation of brooms to each Community Chairmen for the obvious purpose of making a "clean sweep" of the Desert.

Tribute was paid by Mrs. Henderson to those who had helped organize the group from the beginning, and special appreciation was given the many who attended from radio and press. Among the many Directors present the following were introduced: Mrs. Pearl McManus, Mr. James (Jimmy) O'Brien, and Mr. Leon Kennedy. Mrs. George Berkey, former supervisor was introduced as the new liason director.

SMC TIDBITS...

by the roadrunner

Seems as if this is a man's world after all. On Sunday February 17th, the Shadow Mountain Club Women's Golf Association held a pitch and putt tournament, and the dolls invited the guys to play. Matched play, of course! During this classic, Barney Whisenant made a hole in one on number nine. Congratulations, Barney, for upholding the honor of the guys! The group had dinner at the Club where prizes were awarded the flight winners.

If your head moves too fast from left to right, right to left, left to right, etc., etc., during a fast volley at the Tennis Tournament play-off on March 10th, you can always change that to "yes" by moving your head up and down, and visit the Club Lounge for a refresher before the next set starts.

Idaho, Oh Idaho - was a popular song at the Club a few evenings ago when Roxie and Ansgar Johnson had a party for a group of fourteen friends from hometown Boise. The Johnsons recently purchased a Fairway Cottage and are fast becoming desert boosters. Skal to Roxie and Ansgar.

If you haven't entered the campaign, it seems to us there is still time for even a newcomer in the contest to be the winner. The rules are easy! Send in names of friends or friends that you think would like to join Shadow Mountain Club. For each name sent in you will receive 1 point. If the club signs up one of your prospects, you will receive an additional 25 points. If you bring in a member on your own - together with application blank and check, you get 50 points.

The campaign ends March 31st and the person with the most points wins the Color TV. It's as simple as that, so better get going! If you want additional information, just get in touch with Frank Sorenson at the Club.

We have a little checking to do. Our scouts reported that Ruth and Charlie Milliken had guests from Toronto at the Club the other night for dinner. One delighted guest looked a lot like Za Za Gabor. Do you suppose so? We will try and find out!

If you see Wayne Tiss walking around with his head up in the air and acting extra proud of himself - it's because he's a grandpop again.

Bob Pinnell tells us that the men are now playing for the Mon C. Walgren Trophy - 54 medal play.

PALETTE CLUB

Mrs. Irene Fenton, Palette Club President has announced the selection of the artists from the Shadow Mountain group that will be featured during the coming statewide Convention of the California Real Estate Association. Convention is scheduled for March 14, 15, and 16 in Palm Springs, with headquarters at the Riviera and El Mirador Hotels.

In addition to the artists setting up easels around the pools during the Convention, there will also be an exhibit of other completed works.

In making the request, Mrs. Theresa Press, Jr., Past President of the Palm Springs Realtors group, said the SMC Palette Club had been selected as an outstanding example of the development of the culture in the Coachella Valley. She also pointed out that many visitors are inspired by the accomplishments of these artists - many of whom are looking forward to retirement and are taking up some leisure time activities.

Our own Palette Club, celebrating its third anniversary this month, started with 10 members and now boasts a membership of 76. Large groups of members and guests are being attracted every 4th Wednesday at these meetings where world famous artists lecture and demonstrate.

Members are urged to attend and bring guests who are interested in art and fine fellowship. All are invited to view the excellent exhibit of Palette Club members that is on display in the Club's galleria.

PALM DESERT WOMEN'S CLUB

Palm Desert Women's Club is sponsoring a tour and buffet of 3 homes in the Purple Hills on March 8, 9, 10. Proceeds are slated for a very worthy project - the library. Donation $1.00.
